

INTEGRATIONS

HAP is built specially for healthcare professionals and serves as the cornerstone of functional areas marketing intelligence. Data integration, data, and semantic layer combine the deepest marketing expertise it has easy extensibility to strike the perfect balance between automation and customization. Connecting and unifying all of the user platforms, tools and reports in one place become simple with smart assistive HAP technology.

Services:

- Data engineering - Mining, storage, and reports mechanisms.
- Analytics modeling - AI, forecasting and others.
- Validation and testing - Verification and on ground checks followed by iterations.
- Deployment and business operations - Implementation, customization and support.